ONE DOSE ENDS INDIGESTION, GAS, DYSPEPSIA OR A SICK STOMACH.

Who get nervous now—this moment, stomach and intestines, and, besides, and forever rid yourself of stomach trouble and indigestion? A single dose of the famous "Dissipin" will do it. It is a good rest, then take "Dissipin" to start the digestive juices working. There will be no dyspepsia or indigestion of gas or cramps or undigested food, no feeling like a lump of lead in the stomach or heartburn, sick headache and dizziness, and your food will not ferment and poison your breath with noxious odors.

"Dissipin" costs only 50 cents for a large case at my drug store here, and will relieve the most obstinate case of indigestion and upset stomach in five minutes.

There is nothing else better to take than "Dissipin" and "Dissipin" can get relief in five minutes.

LAZY LIVER, BILIOUSNESS, HEADACHE, COATED TONGUE OR A BAD STOMACH

You men and women who somehow can't get feeling right—who have an almost daily headache, coated tongue, flat taste and foul breath, dizziness, can't sleep, are nervous and upset, bothered with a sick, gassy, disordered stomach, or have backache and feel all worn out.

If you are keeping a close eye inside with Cascarets® or merely forcing a passage every few days with salt, cathartic pills or castor oil? This is important.

Cascarets immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the decomposed waste matter from the intestine.

A Cascaret to-night will straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box will keep you entire fine feeling good for months. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good cleaning.

'HACK' NOW WANTS
ANOTHER MEETING
WITH FRANK GOTCH

'Hack' Wants Another Whirl at Toe-Hold Game with Gotch

By W. W. NAUGHTON.
CHICAGO, Sept. 6.—What's this about Hack's desire to meet Frank Gotch for another time? The answer is simple. After Monday's display the only way you could interest the public in another bout is to have the prize of $10,000 to bet on the fight. The only way you can do this is to have the fight on a Saturday night. The only way you can do this is to have the fight on a Saturday night. The only way you can do this is to have the fight on a Saturday night.

During these few days at this location store will be open evenings till 9:30 Saturday evening till 10:30.

LAST-CALL
Clean-Up

Through the courtesy of the owners of this property, 14-16 Summer St., we are permitted to remain here from week to week, subject at any time to four or five days' notice to vacate.

WE consider ourselves remarkably fortunate in being privileged to stay here, even if it is only for a short and uncertain time. It gives us an excellent opportunity to clean our racks before we are forced out without a store until our new building is completed about Oct. 1st. As for you, you are doubly fortunate, for we have ruthlessly slashed everything down to three prices:

$6 At these prices you choose from every two and three piece suit, of light and medium weight, also some medium weight overcoats in navy and black or oxford both plain and silk faced, some heavy enough for late fall wear. Values range $15.00 to $40.00.

This is also a great time to buy Winter and Fur-lined Overcoats—they're selling now at about 33 1/3 cents on the dollar. Also Walking, Prince Albert, Dress and Tuxedo Suits.

Final Clean-up of all $4, $5, $6 & $7 Flannel Trousers, gray, whites & creams, at $2.35

What Do You Know About Making Good Clothes?

A MAN can't make up his mind to do something until he has gone over the facts—carefully and intelligently. We would like to sell you a suit of clothes—this season—and if you are in doubt about where you are going to buy a suit, we would like to do some plain talking with you about the tailoring business.

In the first place, you will admit that we know more about making clothes than you do. That is only a natural inference, anyhow, and our 20 years of success at this one location merely goes to prove it.

Maybe you don't know anything about making clothes. If so, it indicates that you are an average man, attending to your own business and letting clothes makers attend to theirs.

Such being the case, we present the following facts and stand ready to prove everyone of them to your absolute satisfaction.

We make more good suits of clothes for the men of Boston at $15.00 to $25.00 than any three other tailors in the city put together.

We use only the best wools that the market can supply—and never substitute a piece of goods not ordered by a customer.

We are the only tailors in the world legally entitled to use the famous pattern of "The-front-that-won't-break-down" in building coats. Every use of a similar phrase by other tailors is a cheap imitation of the Gale & Kent registered trade-mark.

We guarantee a perfect fit—a perfect style—a perfect design and satisfactory wear to every garment we make.

If you only knew the slipshod way employed by some tailors making clothes—the rush methods used to get "cheap" clothes together so that they could be sold at "cheap" prices, you would never buy a suit at less than $15.00 as long as you live.

At $15.00, and up to $25.00, we can build you a suit to measure in the best tailored fashion—the equal of any $30.00 to $40.00 suit in Boston. The $15.00 saving is yours—and it is a real saving—with no sacrifice in style or quality.

If you believe what we say, you will let us make you a suit or overcoat—this season—and if you decide to trade with us you will learn more about good clothes from the suit we make you than you could learn by reading advertising for the rest of your life.

There will be no "kill the empire" game in the baseball game between the State House and City Hall at the Democratic Harborside Stadium. There is a good reason. John L. Sullivan is to be the umpire. The outing will be at Grandstand Grove, Batteries Main, Fitzgerald and Connolly versus Representatives from McElaney. It sure will be some game.

An Important Lesson for the People of Boston and of Massachusetts

The State has seen the importance of having a Governor who would take a position like a citadel in the public interests, a position which the corporation realized they would have to storm even after they had carried the Legislature, a task too great for any bad cause. In this way, the public has often won important but bloodless victories, because few men have the boldness to challenge a stalwart public servant in a bad cause.

Governor Foss's position in the controversy, which has ended by giving Boston an immediate development of transportation system without any sacrifice of the public interests, predisposed the wiser heads of both the Boston Elevated and the West End to accept a reasonable proposition from those who were interested on the public side of the controversy.

Looking backward from a year, it is interesting to note the progress which the people made in the settlement of this difficult transportation problem. The Joint Board of Railroad and Rapid Transit Commissioners by a large majority made a report which presumably was the result of an agreement between the Boston Elevated and the West End Street Railway by which the West End stockholders were to receive an increase in their dividend amounting to a percent from the riding public of Boston of about three million dollars and the Boston Elevated was to get a fifty-year lease of all the subways now existing or projected in Boston. This proposition was seriously advanced by the two most important bodies in this Commonwealth. It was not intended as a joke. These gentlemen take themselves seriously.

The AMERICAN pointed out the unconditional surrender of the public interests involved in accepting the recommendations of these two boards. The matter then went into legislative committee, and the legislative committee reported a compromise which provided for a lease of the West End to the Elevated for fifty years and a present of a million and a half dollars to the West End stockholders and the leasing of our subways for about forty-two years to the Elevated.

The AMERICAN protested also against this plan upon the ground that present conditions did not show that the West End stockholders were entitled to any increase whatever in their dividends, and that the lease of forty-two years was longer than the established public policy permitted the people to give up control of their underground highways.

The Governor at this point made known his position, and there is every reason to believe that the Elevated threw itself upon the mercy of the public authorities, ready to accept any reasonable solution of the difficulty which might be presented.

The present law is the solution which the Governor, the Legislature and the Public Franchise League worked out. It was properly accepted by the Elevated, and after a sharp discussion has now been accepted by an overwhelming vote of the stockholders of the West End Street Railway.

The Boston Elevated Railway can learn something from the result. It has obtained an important arrangement with the public and with a hostile rival through the intervention of the public authorities without the use of any of the corporation steam-roller methods.

The Public Improvement Association have some things to learn concerning the wisdom of some of their representatives in this important matter. How wise these representatives were may be measured by the difference between the bill which they recommended giving the Elevated for two years of absolute control of the subways and a million and a half dollars to the West End, and the bill which was passed and has now been accepted by both corporations, giving the Elevated only twenty-five years' control of the subways and the West End stockholders no gratuity whatever, unless conditions should justify it eleven years hence.

The result is a lesson to the people of Dorchester that a local benefit need not be gained at the expense of the whole community, and that those who undertake to make them selfish were not urging their true interests.

The Public Utilities Committee of the Chamber of Commerce and the Public Franchise League in this settlement have again proved themselves watchful and efficient guardians of the public welfare.

The great burden of uncertainty has now been lifted from the Elevated, and there is no reason why there should be any delay in the construction of the Boylston street and Dorchester tunnels, together with the proposed extension of the East Boston tunnel. Every hour's delay is a great loss to Boston.

The Rapid Transit Commission can show that if it cannot drive a good bargain for the public it can build these subways rapidly and well. The AMERICAN cannot forbear in leaving the subject to invoke public applause for those West End stockholders who were unwilling to accept an increase of profit against the public interest. At the beginning of the controversy the AMERICAN expressed the opinion that the majority of the stockholders would be sufficiently public-spirited to accept a good agreement and be satisfied with what is fair.

The Special

of the Boston Sunday AMERICAN, out next Sunday, will contain full details of the biggest election fight ever known in Canada. The Sunday AMERICAN has sent Mr. Elias McQuaid to Canada to write the story of the fight from first hand observation. You can read his articles only in Next Sunday's American.

The start of the greatest race in the history of aviation, and, in view of its majestic possibilities, the most important struggle which science and daring have undertaken against the elements and the air, will be witnessed next Sunday, September 10.

The Hearst prize of $50,000 for a flight across the continent, from ocean to ocean, in thirty days, is the largest and the most liberal individual purse ever held up for the conquest of the air.

It has attracted to the test of heroic competition four of the most daring and skillful aeronauts in all the world. With patience and careful study and infinite care each has perfected his plan for the long, magnificent journey over towering Sierras and snow-capped Rockies and rugged Alleghenies; over mighty lakes and majestic rivers and boundless plains; through heat and cold and wind and storm and calm, to carve out a new and wonderful record in the world's newest science of achievement.

Robert G. Fowler, in his Wright biplane, leads off on Sunday noon, steering from San Francisco to New York.

Phil O. Parmelee, with another Wright machine, starts at the same hour from Los Angeles over the southern route to New York.

James J. Ward of Chicago is to-day completing his negotiations for the purchase of a Burgess biplane to start on time from Boston or New York to the Pacific Ocean.

And Cal P. Rodgers, also from Chicago, in the third Wright biplane, will enter the air from New York to Los Angeles.

Boston will watch particularly the progress of Earle L. Ovington, who starts east from Los Angeles September 18. He was born and brought up in Newton and has done his greatest flying right here in New England. On Labor Day he capped all his performances by flying from the aviation field at Squantum to Nashua, thence to Worcester, then to Providence and finally back to the aviation field, in the longest cross-country race ever held in America. He will try for the Hearst prize in the same machine which he used on Labor Day—his seventy-horsepower Elieriot monoplane. His route is 4,800 miles. He will be the last contestant to start. Like the rest, he must finish by October 10.

Five dauntless epochal racers—three flying east and two flying west—will thus enter the air for the longest, the most daring and the most eventful race in modern history.

If any of these, or all of them in pursuit of the Hearst prize, should make this passage safely, it will advance the science and art of aviation as nothing has ever done before. It will open an unlimited vista of development and opportunity.

The wide Atlantic will offer the next logical pathway for an aerial race, and if this is won, the air is man's, his servant and his shining way to unlimited power and pleasure and prosperity.

There is no fear but that the world will have its eye and its mind upon these five dauntless pioneers who take the air to link a continent in etheral bonds.

Every Fair Should Have the Earnest Support of Farmers and of All the City People Within Reach

This is the time of the year in which the country fair makes its appearance in our midst. The country fair is a truly American institution that MEANS something. And the country fair had its beginning right here in New England, the idea spreading to all parts of the United States.

The country fair year after year improves the work that the farmers do—AND THAT IS THE MOST IMPORTANT PRODUCTIVE WORK DONE IN THIS WORLD. Fairs bring the workers of the country together. The finest animals, the finest products of the farm reach all those that see them. Prizes encourage and reward those that put first class work ahead of mere money making.

Every citizen living within reach of one of these New England farms should go there and learn that he might be making a farm profitable—or at least less expensive than a yacht. City folks should contribute to the prizes to show appreciation of the work of the farmer, who is the national feeder.

Those that buy what one man has created and sell to another, those that deal in words in newspaper office or pulpit, all of those that live the lives of traders are mightily improved when they come in contact WITH THE PRODUCERS. The farmers are the men that bring wealth out of the ground and keep the human race going and improving, and country fairs are the schools of agriculture.

A reader who signs himself "J. R." asks for suggestions in regard to the rapidly increasing dog nuisance. In reply I wish to send him the following suggestion through your newspaper:

In Vienna the local authorities are compelling owners of dogs to muzzle their napping pets. I am quite sure that there is a vast difference in the number of deaths caused by dogs in the tropics and in the more civilized climates. The muzzling of dogs would have little effect on the number of deaths caused by dogs in the tropics.

It would be of great benefit to the general public if the number of lives from this terrible malady were diminished. I note with interest that you have been the recipient of many of your readers in your crusade against this terrible disease. I hope that the editor of your newspaper who would get
